Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

- (b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.
- 2. Claim 21 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Bowler'4,193,228.

With reference to Figure 1, col. 2, lines 44-55, Bowler discloses an abrading tool 64 for cleaning a polished tile without removing the finish. Regarding to the limitations of "the tile grout and stains on the tile grout", Bowler teaches that the type of abrading surface used will depend on the work to be done (col. 2, lines 46-47). Thus, in Figure 1, Bowler inherently teaches that the stains on the tile grout are removed as the abrading tool in the form of a brush so as not remove the finish of the tile.

Double Patenting

3. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970);and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

4. Claims 21-32 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-12 of U.S. Patent No. 6,592,432. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the subject matter of the patent claims is fully disclosed in the in the patent application and covered by the patented claim. The patented claim are inclusive for they are drafted using the 'comprising-style' format and cover the subject matter of the application claims. Since the patent has obtained the right to exclude others from making or using the subject matter set forth in the claims of this application by virtue of the patented claims, the issuance of the application into a patent without a terminal disclaimer as provided for under 37 CFR section 1.321 (b) would amount to an extension of this right.
